Diamond Vogel's Peridium Powder Coatings Unveils New Label Design

Orange City, Iowa – May 1, 2019 – Diamond Vogel® announced the unveiling of a new label design for their Peridium® Powder Coatings. The initial run of the new label design will be manufactured at the Peridium Powder Coatings plant in Orange City, Iowa beginning on May 1, 2019.

The development of the new label design emulates Diamond Vogel's commitment to delivering quality coating solutions distinctively. The new label design also helps reinforce the company's rebranding efforts that took place in 2018.

Diamond Vogel's Peridium Powder Coatings offer excellent application and performance that continuously exceed expectations. Diamond Vogel's state-of-the-art technology allows for tightly controlled particle-size distribution. This means that you can count on Diamond Vogel for impressive first-pass transfer, edge coverage, and smoothness.
